1 NAME

The name of the organisation is Surf Life Saving Far North Coast Branch Incorporated (SLSFNC INC).

2 OBJECTS

SLSFNC is a charitable community service based institution. The objects for which SLSFNC is established are to;

- a) Create a single uniform entity through and by which surf life saving and the preservation of life in the aquatic environment can be conducted, encouraged, promoted, advanced and administered;
- b) Provide for the conduct, encouragement, promotion and administration of surf life saving through and by various affiliated Clubs and Body/s;
- c) Ensure the maintenance and enhancement of SLSA's standards, quality, reputation and image for the benefit of the Members and Surf Life Saving Australia;
- d) At all times promote mutual trust and confidence between SLSFNC and its Members in pursuit of these objects;
- e) At all times act in the interest of the Members and surf life saving;
- f) Promote the economic and community service success, strength and stability of SLSFNC, each affiliated Club and surf life saving;
- g) Conduct, encourage, promote, advance and control surf life saving, its many aspects devoted to aquatic safety, management and the preservation of life in the aquatic environment.
- h) Conduct the research and development for improvements in methods of surf life saving and surf life saving equipment and to improve and safeguard the use of the aquatic environment;
- i) Use and protect the Intellectual Property of Surf Life Saving Australia;
- j) Apply the property and capacity of SLSFNC towards the fulfilment and achievement of these objects;
- k) Promote the involvement and influence of surf life saving standards, techniques, awards and education with bodies involved in aquatic life saving;
- l) Strive for governmental, commercial and public recognition of SLSFNC as the peak authority on aquatic safety and management;
- m) Promulgate, and secure uniformity in, such rules as may be necessary for the management and control of surf life saving and related activities and the preservation of life in the aquatic environment;
- n) Further extend the operations and teachings of SLSFNC to affiliated Clubs;
- o) Further develop surf life saving into an organised institution and with these objects in view, to foster, regulate, organise and manage assessments, competitions, displays and other activities and the issue new of badges, medallions and certificates and award trophies and certificates to successful members;

- p) Review and/or determine any matters relating to surf life saving which may arise, or be referred to it, by any affiliated Club;
- q) Recognise and record any penalty imposed by any affiliated Club;
- r) Be the arbiter on all matters pertaining to the conduct of surf life saving in Far North Coast (NSW), including disciplinary matters;
- s) Pursue through itself or other such commercial arrangements, including sponsorship and marketing opportunities as are appropriate to further the interests of surf life saving;
- t) Formulate or adopt and implement appropriate policies, including in relation to sexual harassment, equal opportunity, equity, drugs in sport, health, safety, junior and senior programs, infectious diseases and such other matters as arise from time to time as issues to be addressed in SLSFNC;
- u) Represent the interests of its Members and of surf life saving generally in any appropriate forum;
- v) Have regard to the public's interest in the operations and activities of SLSFNC;
- w) Do all that is reasonably necessary to enable the objects to be achieved and to enable the Members to receive the benefits which these objects and activities are intended to achieve;
- x) Ensure that environmental considerations are taken into account in all surf life saving and related activities conducted by SLSFNC;
- y) Promote the health and safety of Members and all other users of the aquatic environment;
- z) Encourage Members to realise their potential and athletic abilities by extending to them the opportunity of education and participation in surf life saving competition and to award trophies and rewards to successful competitors;
- aa) Encourage and promote performance-enhancing drug free activities and competition;
- bb) Recommend and support awards to Members and others, in honourable public recognition of hard and meritorious rescues from the sea, deeds of exceptional bravery from time to time performed in the course of life saving and other distinguished services and acts;
- cc) Give and seek where appropriate, recognition for Members to obtain awards or public recognition in fields of endeavour other than surf life saving;
- dd) Seek and obtain improved facilities for the enjoyment of the aquatic environment;
- ee) Promote uniformity of laws for the control and regulation of the aquatic environment and to assist authorities in enforcing these laws;
- ff) Award Life Membership of SLSFNC, recommend the conferring of Life Membership of SLSNSW and/or Surf Life Saving Australia, on any Member of SLSFNC, subject to the requirements of SLSFNC Constitution and the requirements of the respective higher authority;

- h) Period of membership for consideration shall commence at Bronze Medallion eligibility age or date of joining a Club, which ever is the later;
- i) In the event that the nominee is also a member of the Honours and Life Membership Committee, then that member shall abstain from sitting on or voting on the Committee;
- j) Life Members may attend all Branch General Meetings without voting rights.

31 OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE

All official correspondence to and from the Branch must be through the Director of Administration except to and from the Judiciary Committee and the Directors who may correspond to the SLSNSW Directors. A copy of the correspondence must be forwarded to the Branch Director of Administration.

32 VOTING BY MAIL, FACSIMILE OR ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION

Urgent matters arising between meetings of the Branch may be decided by a mail, facsimile or electronic transmission vote that shall be conducted in the following manner:

- a) Upon the instructions of the President or by resolution of the Executive any matter which may be dealt with by the Branch shall be submitted to a vote by mail, facsimile or electronic transmission;
- b) Where a vote by mail, facsimile or electronic transmission is intended to be taken the Director of Administration shall send by mail to each Club, delegate and officer who is entitled to vote, a clear statement of the question to be voted upon with a request that the vote thereon be sent by mail or electronically to the Director of Administration. Such request shall state the time and date upon which voting shall close;
- c) Within seven (7) days of the closing of a vote the Director of Administration shall mail to each Club, delegate and officer of the Branch a report of the result of such voting. The report shall contain a copy of the question and the resultant decision;
- d) All mail, facsimile and electronic votes received by the Director of Administration shall be filed with a copy of the question and a copy of the report of the result of the voting, and shall be retained in the official file of the Branch for a period of not less than one (1) year.

33 PROXIES

Should delegates of a Club be unable to attend a meeting of the Branch the Club may appoint proxies.

34 RULES OF DEBATE

- a) Any member desiring to speak shall stand up and shall address the Chairman respectfully;
- b) No member may speak more than once to a question except in explanation or reply;
- c) A member who formally seconds a motion or amendment may address the meeting in support at a subsequent stage of the debate;
- d) A reply shall be allowed only to a member who has moved a substantive motion;
- e) No member shall use offensive or unbecoming words;
- f) No speaker shall digress from the subject under discussion and all personal reflections on members shall be deemed disorderly;
- g) Whenever the Chairman rises during debate the member then speaking shall sit down;
- h) No member shall interrupt another while speaking except on a point of order;

- i) Point of order:
 - i. Any member during the debate may raise a point of order, when the member speaking shall then sit down until the point of order has been decided;
 - ii. The member raising the point of order shall state concisely the point, and the Chairman without further discussion shall give a ruling.
- j) It shall be competent for any member to move a motion of dissent from the Chairman's ruling. The mover of the motion of dissent shall concisely state the point. The seconder and the Chairman only may speak to the motion;
- k) A member may move the adjournment of the debate. If the motion be resolved in the negative the mover shall not be allowed to speak again on the question under debate. If the motion be resolved in the affirmative the mover shall have the right of resuming the debate at the ensuing meeting. No member shall move the adjournment at the end of that member's speech;
 - i. At any time during a debate a member may move 'that the question now be put', and such motion being duly seconded shall be put without debate. If carried, the question shall be put to vote, if lost the debate shall continue. It shall not be in order to move 'that the question be now put' until at least two (2) members shall have had an opportunity of speaking against the motion;
 - ii. When the motion that the question now be put' is carried, the mover of the original motion shall have the right to reply, but it shall not be competent for the mover of the original motion to move 'that the question be now put' unless the right of reply is forfeited.
- l) An amendment may be moved on any original motion. The Chairman shall first put the amendment to the meeting and if carried, it shall be declared to embody the decision of the meeting superseding the motion. When an amendment has been decided, a further amendment may be moved, which, if carried, shall in turn supersede the motion. If there is no amendment the original motion shall be put after the mover has replied;
- m) The Chairman shall refuse to receive any amendment which is direct negative;
- n) The Chairman may appoint tellers to assist counting a vote by show of hands or division, or at a secret ballot;
- o) The mover of an original motion must obtain the consent of the seconder and the approval of the meeting before making any alteration to the wording of the motion;
- p) An amendment having been moved, it shall not be competent to move any further amendment but notice may be given of intention to move such further amendment when the previous amendment has been disposed of. Only one (1) amendment can be considered at the same time;
- q) A motion passed at a meeting may be recommitted at that meeting only with the concurrence of two thirds (2/3) of the voting members present.

35 RECISION MOTIONS

A motion once moved and carried may only be amended or rescinded by a Notice of Motion as per Clause 20.

36 BINDING MOTIONS

Motions which are carried and have not been incorporated into this Constitution and are still effective after the end of the season in which they were adopted, shall be maintained in a register by the Director of Administration. They shall be re-endorsed as a 'Motion Binding' at the first meeting after the Annual General Meeting.
